

HTML Exercises For You To Practice

Ex - 1 1.

1. Create a HTML web page with following:
 - a. Web Page Title “My First Web Page”
 - b. Add BGCOLOR, TEXT attributes for the body.
 - c. Show the use the different heading tags.

Ex - 2

- A. Add 2 paragraphs to your web page
- B. Show these text with following formatting along with line break:
 - a. ☐ Italics – “This text is in italics” :
 - b. ☐ Bold – “This text is in Bold”
 - c. ☐ Underline – “This text is underlined”

Ex - 3

Create a new web page & name it as page2.html with following:

- a. Web Page Title “Second Web Page”
- b. Show the Use of Tag and its attributes – FACE, COLOR and SIZE.
- c. Show your text within the ... in verdana, brown & of size = 4

Ex – 4

Create a new web page & name it as imagetest.html with following:

- a. Web Page Title “Showing Images in webpage” \
- b. Add image of WIDTH = “200px” and HEIGHT = “200px”
- c. Add few lines of text
- d. Align the image to either left or right side
- e. Add the border of 2px to the image
- f. Show the use of ALT attribute.
- g. Leave the space of 50px horizontally & vertically using HSPACE & VSPACE

Ex - 5

Create a new web page & name it as list.html. Show this output

Ex - 6

Create a new web page & name it as definitionlist.html.

- a. Show how do you use the Defination List Tag to list the defination term and describe it

Ex - 7

Create a new web page & name it as linktest.html.

- Write the text “Go To list.html” within the anchor tag. On Clicking this link, it should redirect to the list.html page
- Add an image of height 100px. Now create a link to this image & redirect to “http://www.google.com”

Ex - 8

Create a new web page & name it as sectionlink.html.

- Create a named anchor as “TOP”
- Write “This is Top Section”
- Add 15 lines of <H1>Heading 1 Text</h1> in your page.
- Create a link text as “Go To Top” & on clicking this text it should move to the top of the page.

Ex - 9

Create a new web page, name it as table.html. Create a table with features:

- Border of 1px, Background color of Gray
- Add Caption for the Table as “Table 1”
- Add 3 Table Headers – Semester, RollNo, Name
- Add 3 rows & fill its cell with the data
- Align the table to center
- Use cellpadding & cellspacing
- Use different colors for each row & cell ◦ Set the width of the table & its columns

Ex - 10

Create a new web page, name it as formtest.html and Create a Form with following form controls.

HTML Form Test

Ex - 10

Name
Address
Email
Gender	☐ Male ☐ Female
Hobbies	☐ Sports ☐ Movies ☐ Travelling
Country	Nepal
Message
Submit Reset

Ex - 11

Use HTML table & show the following output in the browser.

- Hint: Use Table/Row/Cell Properties - COLSPAN, WIDTH, BGCOLOR, ALIGN, VALIGN, HEIGHT
- Create a table of 4 rows x 3 columns and of width="100%" height="75" border="0" cellpadding="0" cellspacing="0"
- The Table cell at left should have width of 20%
- Fill the background color for each cell or row as shown
- Use COLSPAN where needed
- For the lessons section at left, add a new table of 9 rows by 1 cols and of width="150" border="0" align="center" cellspacing="3" cellpadding="3"
- Add links to the text in each cells in the lessons block Ex – 11

Lessons	Designed to assist new users with hand-coding a Web site	Notes
Home	This tutorial will walk you through the steps necessary to make a basic Web site. It provides you with an understanding of the essential elements of HTML. This tutorial is designed to supply you with a basic knowledge of HTML.	This site is designed to lead you on a specific path to making your Web Site. However, at any time, you can leave a page to reread a section or to look at a different area.
Basic HTML	By the end of this tutorial you will have a basic knowledge of how to:
Essential Tags	• Structure an HTML tag;
Text Characteristics	• Store an HTML page;
Text Appearance	• Modify the appearance of your HTML text, including style and color; and
Color Settings	• Create lists and tables within your Web page.
Creating Lists
Creating Tables
HTML Assignment		